Slight Offerings at Rocky Mounts

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., Oct. 15.—

Sales of leaf tobacco have again been light this week, owing to the fact that farmers are taking advantage of favorable weather to pick cotton and house other crops. The total of the offerings was 750,000 pounds, which sold at prices that tage of favorable weather to pick cotton and house other crops. The total of the offerings was 750,000 pounds, which sold at prices that were satisfactory to the farmers, al-though the large proportion of common and nondescript tobaccos of-fered cut the average down. All good to fine leaf sold as high as at any time this season.
